

i strongly feel that television and radio be used expressly for entertainment and/or education. it should not be steered toward a one-sided view by corporations to sway the public towards their views.